Invitations Out.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Taylor Albert, of Baltimore, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Mary Buchanan, and Lennox Birkhead on Wednesday evening, June 25, at 7 o'clock, at St. Paul's Church, in that city. Following the ceremony there will be a small reception for the two families and their friends at the residence of the bride's uncle-in-law and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene G. de Buliet, 130 Belvidere terrace. The groom's party will be performed by the groom's cousin, Dr. Hugh Birkhead, rector of Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, where the wedding would have taken place had the church not been undergoing repairs. Miss Henrietta Buchanan Albert will be her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Adelaide Colt Williams, Miss Nancy Howard De Ford, Miss Anita Frances Renshaw Hoff and Miss Alice Teackle Wallis, of Norfolk. Malbone Birkhead, of New York, a brother of Dr. Hugh Birkhead, will be his cousin's best man, and the ushers will be Thomas Gittings Buchanan, an uncle of the bride; Robert Henry Renshaw, of Richmond; Charles Reeves, of Philadelphia; Charles Godebough Hoff, James Russell Manning and Harold Haupt, all of Baltimore. After a wedding journey the bride and groom will spend the summer at Annapolis, the old family residence of Towson, of the latter's mother, Mrs. Lennox Birkhead.

Prominent Engagement.
Announcement has been made in New York of the engagement of Miss Hilda Holloway, sister of Mrs. William L. Hirst, with whom she makes her home at Haverford, to Henry P. Renwick, of Long Island. Miss Holloway spends parts of her winters in Virginia with her brother, Sidney Holloway.

She has several times visited in Richmond, and has ridden in many of the horse shows given here at various times.

For Miss Kirkley.
Miss Novella Sydnor gave a fruit supper at Forest Hill Park Tuesday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Francis Kirkley, of Charlottesville. The evening was spent in playing games, after which refreshments were served. Among those present were: Misses Novella Sydnor, Marjorie Morton, Francis Kirkley, Joe Chaddick, Pansy Chaddick, Nellie Jones, Florence Wharton, Lillie Leath, Erma Bates, Elva Bates, Hazel Jones, and Messrs. Bruce Leath, Alston, Ferrell, Atkins, Jackson, Slater, Howard Clarke, William Grigg, Fred Clarke and Balston. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. John Hawks and Mr. Bishop.

Family Reunion.
The fourth annual reunion of the children and grandchildren of the late Mrs. Rebecca Wheeler-Kilby is being held this week at the home of Mrs. Emma C. Quarles in Charlottesville. The members of the house party include Mrs. M. C. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. W. Dan Williams and Miss Kathleen Williams, of Charleston, W. Va.; Mrs. William Charlton and Miss Jessie Charlton, of Hinton, W. Va.; Mrs. Thomas M. Jones, of Ashland; Miss Elizabeth Davis, of the Woman's College, Richmond; Miss Anne Wright, of Bedford City; Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Peers, of Green Springs; and Mrs. Auburn Mann and Mrs. Emma Quarles.

In and Out of Town.
Mrs. Reginald Brooks expects to sail this month for England, and will spend the summer abroad.

Cannot Do Better Than Let Us Supply the Furniture

To roam through the various floors and aisles of this mammoth furniture store—the stock of which is like no other in Richmond—possessing a tone, character and individuality all its own—IS A PLEASURE. Whether you have an entire house to fit out, or just a single piece to buy, it will pay you to COME HERE, as nowhere else, do we believe, will be seen SUCH EXCELLENT VARIETY, SUCH ORIGINALITY AND BEAUTY OF DESIGN, AND SUCH GOODNESS AND QUALITY AT THE PRICE. Indeed, your furniture buying will be done most pleasingly and economically at this store, and our ironclad guarantee of absolute satisfaction is behind each purchase. Notice prices below, which are just a few, of our big values.

White Mountain Refrigerators

Cursing the cooler won't keep your meat fresh and your milk from souring. The only thing to do is to buy a White Mountain Refrigerator. It is arranged to save the meat, butter and cream, and save the ice bill, too.

Although we have not as yet had an extremely warm weather, yet we are now on our third carload of White Mountain Refrigerators, with the prospect of having to order several more cars of them before the end of the season. The "White Mountain" is not only the most economical and best made Refrigerator, but you pay us no more for a "White Mountain" than you'd pay elsewhere for an inferior make.

Robert S. Smith

Of New York City, recently sold a little triangular plot at Thirty-fourth Street and Broadway for one million dollars.

Mr. Smith, who began his business life shoving a push cart in New York City, says there is no such thing as luck; that a man should find joy in his work and save systematically.

Mr. Smith claims that the same opportunities exist today as when he came to this country thirty years ago, and that he would be willing to go back to his youth and push a cart again just for the fun of fighting his way up.

You may never get into Mr. Smith's financial class, but if you will
